

Jive & Expressive Dance Spree Weekend 22 – 25 May 2026, at The Marsham Court Hotel, Bournemouth.

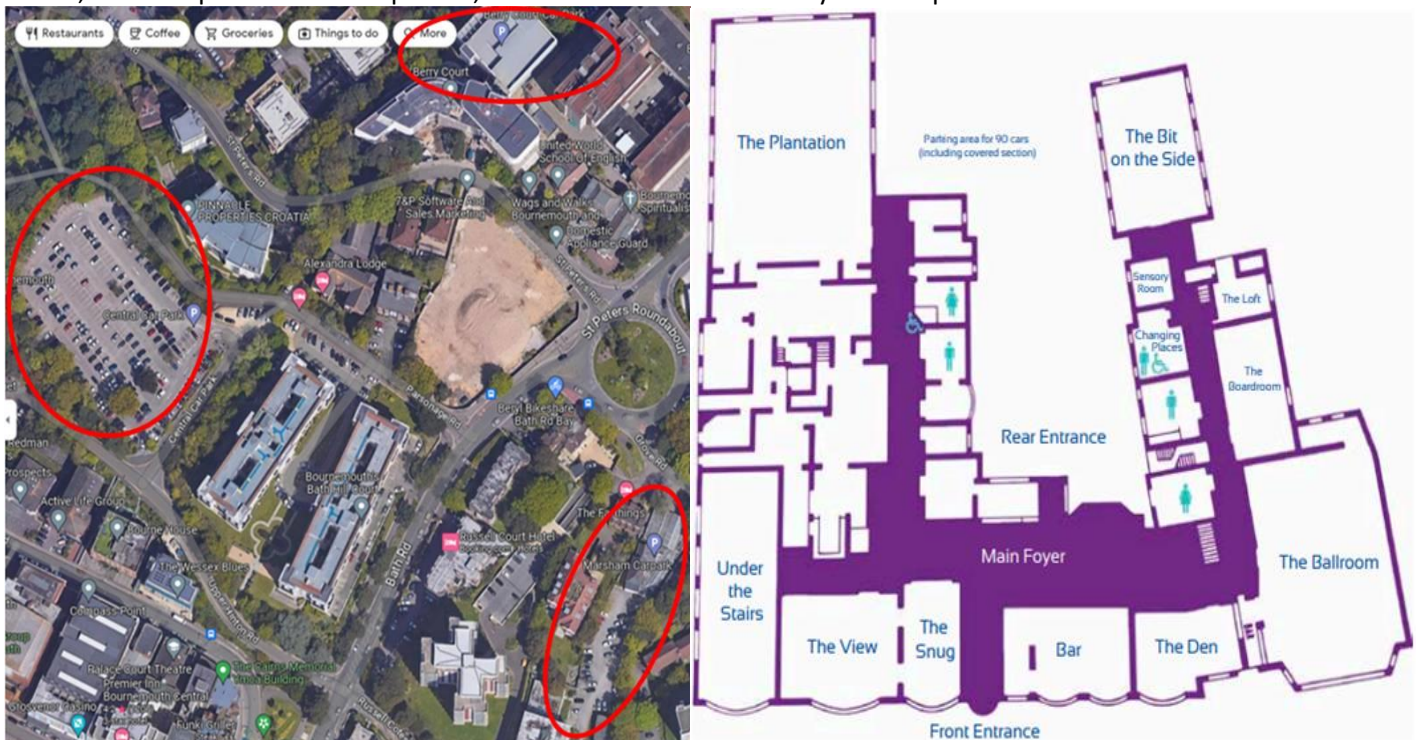

Hi All,

We are excited to welcome you to our Premier dance weekend on Friday 22 May (Thursday arrivals, please see extra info at the end). If you are a lead name please copy this pack to your party members. Rooms sold out (however, 1 room has cancelled, if you have friends interested, ask them to call us, we'll put them in touch with the seller). Full weekend all day passes (no accommodation or meals) are available at £ 150 per person. Night passes available for advance purchase only (not available on the door) at £ 15 for one night, £ 25 for two nights and £ 30 for three nights.

This “Arrival Information Pack”, is published on JiveTime’s website HERE. The pack might be modified further up to 48 hours prior to the event. We recommend that you do not print it any earlier so that you have the latest updated copy.

The event’s timetable is attached further below. NO LOOSE PAPER COPY of the timetable will be available on site. Please print your copy of this pack before travelling to the hotel. The pack is also available on JiveTime’s website (in the download section) throughout the dance weekend. The timetable will also be affixed outside the dance venues.

PARKING: At the Marsham Court Hotel, 3 Russell Cotes Rd, East Cliff, Bournemouth BH1 3AB. Tel 01202-552 111. Free parking limited to one car space per room, not guaranteed, subject to availability, first come first served. Limited blue badge holder parking, ring the hotel ASAP to reserve yours, first come first served. If you do not find a free parking space, then you might wish to consider the use of the Berry Court Car Park (bcpcouncil.gov.uk) or the Central Car Park (Central bcpcouncil.gov.uk). Both council car parks are located at the back of the hotel and are shown on the map below; both car parks offer cheap rates, click the above links to verify current prices.

Free car parking (90 spaces in total, subject to availability) within the hotel’s front forecourt (signage says no parking, but this year you can park) and at the back of the hotel. Some free car parking might also be found on secondary roads away from the hotel. The hotel’s ground floor layout is shown in the above image on the right-hand side.

About six double parking spaces are allowed only at the back entrance of the hotel car park where there is ample space to do so; if you use this specific double parking and park in front of someone else’s car, then please leave your mobile no. on the dashboard of your car for the other person to call you in case they need to move their car. Please make sure that your parked car does not block the entrance/exit of the hotel’s car park located at the front and at the rear of the hotel. Consider car sharing with friends. Aside from being a more economical way of getting to the hotel in terms of petrol and parking fees (if you use the council’s car park), the fewer cars travelling to the event the more cars are likely to park for free at the hotel. Please, park correctly so that you use only one parking space per car.

CHECK-IN: Friday, 22 May, from 3.00pm in the Bar/Foyer area. As per previous events, a fixed wrist band will be applied to your wrist during the check-in process. CHECK-OUT: on Monday, 25 May, by 11.00am.

LATE CHECK-IN & Food: If you plan to arrive after 8pm on Friday, or you are delayed, please call the hotel before 7.30pm on 01202 - 552 111 (select option 4) so reception know to reserve you a “ploughman’s dinner” with a cold dessert. Please mention any dietary requirements. When you check-in, say that you have reserved the cold option. Please note that if you arrive beyond 8pm without this reservation, you might not be served any food, hot or cold.

MEAL INFORMATION: Friday evening to Monday morning, three course evening dinner with coffee, full English and continental breakfast. Please see further below for the table allocations list. Fixed dinner times are in place to facilitate meals and ensure you will not have to wait excessive lengths of time for your food to arrive. If you are allocated an early time slot, you will not be asked to leave the table in order for other people to be seated.

We endeavoured to allocate your preferred time slot. However, where a chosen time slot is in high demand, then that time slot has been allocated on a first come first served basis. In any case, please note that there is only a minimal time difference between the earliest slot at 6.00pm, middle slot at 6.20pm and the later slot at 6.40pm. There are no time slots for breakfast, however, you will need to sit at the same table that has been allocated to you for dinner, as shown further below. Swapping positions with people sat at other tables is permitted ONLY if all parties affected are in agreement. All tables and associated chairs are reserved for the duration of dinner/breakfast only. Tables and associated chairs are available on a first come first served basis at all other times during workshops, dances etcetera.

Bar & Other Services: The hotel may accept payment by cash, credit card or by charging to your room account. 25% off bar prices from 5.00 - 6.00pm. At check-in you’ll receive a discount card (10% off cold drinks; not including hot drinks, bottles of wine, etc). FREE iced water & glasses provided. Welcome reception with FREE Bucks Fizz, Friday from 5.30pm in The Ballroom. Please do not bring alcohol to consume on-site, hotels are lawfully entitled to charge corkage. Please report immediately to the Hotel any dangerous situations such as spillages, broken glasses & any other danger.

Room Service & Facilities: For those who prefer not to have their room serviced every day, the hotel offers a £5.00 per room bar credit for each day you would normally have your room cleaned. The credit will be deducted from any charges you place on your room bill for payment at the end of your stay. For 3 nights you could get a credit for 2 days (£ 10). If you choose this option, any additional towels & Tea/Coffee will be available to you at reception. Please let the hotel know on arrival if you would like more information about this option or would like to take advantage of this option. All rooms feature: 26” flat screen tv, toiletries, tea/coffee making facilities, safe, iron & ironing board. All rooms are NO SMOKING and are fitted with smoke detectors. Please refrain from smoking in your room. The hotel has the following policy: “If you are found smoking in your bedroom you will be charged £150 for additional cleaning”.

Fancy Dress (optional): The Saturday night fancy dress theme this year will be ‘Underground, overground’ - anything connected with trains or train stations. You have plenty to choose from, for example London Underground has stations with evocative names such as Angel, Baker Street, Arsenal, Bank etcetera, so if you were to choose Angel as a train station then you could decide to dress up as an angel, groups might wish to consider stations such as Seven Kings station, dressing up as Kings. You could come as the fat controller or Thomas the tank engine or as part of the maintenance team wearing a hard hat, or a Hi-Vi, or in uniform as the station supervisor. What about dressing up as a busker or a tramp? Whatever you decide, dress to impress! Prizes will be awarded to a selection of those coming up with the best fancy dress and original ideas associated to this theme. Judging will take place at dinner time!

Swimming Pool: Weather permitting, the external swimming pool will be open throughout the weekend, 8.00am to 8.00pm. So, bring your swimming costume and sun tan lotion. Pool towels provided by the hotel.

Masseur: Sports massage, Swedish massage, hot & cold stones, cupping & taping. Book in reception by JiveTime desk from Friday 3pm till 6pm. Saturday 10pm till 6pm. Sunday 10pm till 6pm. 25 minutes for £35, and, 55 minutes for £60.

NEXT EVENT: Bank Holiday 28 - 31 May 2027: See further below. 2027 prices are the same as the current 2026 prices for the first 100 people booking our May 2027 dance weekend between now and Sunday 31 May 2026 (prices will increase from the 1st of June or from the 100th booking, whichever is first. Book the 2027 event at 2026 prices NOW!!!

Slow Hand: A crime fiction novel leading the DI into the convivial world of Modern Jive. The author will be attending our forthcoming dance weekend and he’ll bring with him 8 copies of this book at £ 7.50 each. First come first served.

Thursday arrivals, DO NOT FORGET to read the extra information at the end of the document.

We look forward to welcome you to our Premier dance weekend.

Rebecca, Franco and JiveTime team.

EXTRA INFO FOR THURSDAY ARRIVALS ONLY

The following extra information is only for people arriving on Thursday (41 people in total) and for whom room only has been booked. As we do not have meals included on Thursday evening, then we have researched various eateries in Bournemouth, within 15 minutes walking distance of the Marsham Court Hotel, where we'll be staying. We considered a number of places and came up with these two possible candidates:

Cosy Club: This is the first place that we considered by default, as our good friends David and Aneta took us there for dinner last year, the day before their wedding. Last year we experienced good food, the ambience was very nice and from the general menu, see HERE, there is a good spread of typical British fare and also some interesting Continental dishes. Vegetarians are also catered for. All appear to be priced consistently with other eateries in the local area, albeit the same cannot be said for drinks, which seem to be more expensive. We called to reserve a group table, and, to enquire about the possibility of a discount for such a large group. We were told that there are no discounts for groups and that whilst they would be able to accommodate our large group at a long table, we would only be able to order from a set party menu, priced at £ 27.50 per person, which, as you can see HERE, is a far cry from their general menu, with very few options available. Having asked whether they would consider allowing people to choose food from the general menu, they categorically stated that this will not be possible.

Agora Restaurant: We have never been to this place, which offers typical Turkish and Greek cuisine. Vegetarians are also catered for. They too have quite an impressive menu, see HERE, and they too will only be able to cater for us as a group on a set menu. The Agora is slightly more expensive at £ 30 per person, albeit their drinks menu (see at the bottom of the menu via previous link) is cheaper than the Cosy Club's. Their table set up for the group would be made of a number of smaller tables across the restaurant. The set menu comprises 5 typical mezes (starters) brought to the tables in platters for people to help themselves (vegetarians will be catered for via separate platters). This will be followed by the main course consisting of a variety of meats such as chicken kebab, lamb etcetera. Again, vegetarians will be catered separately even if sat at the same table. We were assured that we'll receive good portions to cater for our large group, and, albeit their set menu is slightly more expensive than the Cosy Club's, the price is reduced compared to the Agora's standard offer, see their online menu showing that 5 mezes alone already cost more than the £ 30 deal that they offered us for the set menu.

Overall impression following discussions with the managers of both eateries is that I felt treated like every other customer by the Cosy Club manager, which per se is not a negative indication. However, by bringing a group of 41 people, I was expecting some excitement on their part at the prospect of hosting us, and I did not get that feeling. Even after I said that our group comes to Bournemouth once a year and so repeat bookings could be possible with them in the future, the manager did not flinch, which leads me to think that we'll be treated like anyone else without any particular difference or attention. A different perception was felt from the Agora's manager and albeit they too get large repeat bookings coming from all over the place on regular basis, there was a gut feeling that he might pull the extra stop for us in order to have us back again next year. Both eateries have very good reviews on Tripadvisor, see HERE for the Cosy Club, and HERE for the Agora. Percentage wise, the Agora has a slight edge on general review count on all areas including food, and, has a lower percentage of negative reviews.

The table set up is different between the two places, one features a long table for the whole group, the other has individual smaller tables. In effect there is no difference, as with a longer table you are in any case able to interact only with those near you, which is the same as it would happen for a smaller table. One advantage of smaller tables is the ease of sharing cost of common drinks, albeit everybody should be free to purchase and pay for their own drinks. Whilst Rebecca and I feel more inclined to go to the Agora to experience a new restaurant (we can always go back to the Cosy Club next year), we are happy to go where the majority of people prefer to go. As time is of the essence, please email us your preference by close of business ASAP and by 6.00pm on Wednesday 13.
